

BROKEN BARREL MONTHLY SUGGESTIONS

RED WINE $46

Love you Bunches by Stolpman Vineyards,
Ballard Canyon, 2016

Bursting with vibrant energy, this Carbonic Sangiovese is light-hearted and meant to drink cold. Bright, tart cherry acidity, red grapefruit and a popping tannin structure makes this wine fun and very food friendly.

WHITE WINE $32

Nino Negri, Valtellina Italy, 2015

The vineyard is located in the northern part of Italy near Milan and Switzerland. They are known for drying the grapes before pressing them, steepness of their vineyard and harvest by helicopter. Wines are elegant and delicate in character. This white blend is 30% Sauvignon Blanc, 30% Chardonnay, 30% Incrocio Manzoni and 10% Chiavennasca (Nebbiolo). The stony altitude soil allows the wine to have the Alps freshness and minerality.
